"I don't care whether it's just a few stray hairs or a full fledged mustache, hair on a woman's face will spoil her beauty. That's all there is to that. I know. Of course I tried the electric needle and all the other remedles I ever heard of. And, of course, the hair came back. It always will with such remedles. They don't really kill the hair. They just burn it off the surface and stimulate the roots. Sometimes I just couldn't bear to face anybody with that horrible growth on my face and arms. I was about to give up in despair, when some friend sent me a bottle of Elec-tro-la. I hadn't faith in the remedy before I used it, but it took just one treatment to convince me. The "I don't care whether it's just a few the remedy before I used it, but it took just one treatment to convince me. The way the hair came off was a marvel and no matter how long I left the remedy on it would not burn or smart. That's the secret of its success. You can leave it on long enough to reach the roots and kill the hair and a cure with Elec-tro-la is a cure that lasts. A sport in New Jersey, whose name is mislaid, has issued a challenge, serene, undismayed. He claims he can shovel more pies in his hold than any man living, and puts up the gold to back up his challenge, so here is a chance for pie eating experts their fame to advance. Now here is a sport that I like to indorse; a man can eat pies and not work like a horse; no heart-breaking training for wearisome weeks; no sparring or wrestling with subsidized freaks;

no rubbing or grooming or skipping the rope, no toning your nerves with some horse doctor's dope; no bones dislocated, or face pounded sore, no wearing gum boots in a whirlpool of gore. The pie eater's training no anguish implies; he starves till his stomach is howling for pies; he loosens his belt to the utter most hole, and says to the umpire: "All right! Let her roll!" There's gold for the winner, and honor and fame, and even the loser's ahead of the game.

CATTLE SHIPMENT FROM MEXICO HAVE STARTED

The spring shipment of cattle from Mexico has commenced, the National railways of Mexico having hauled out three trainloads. The shipments came from Chihushus, Gallego and Saux and were consigned to Kansas City.

It is thought the cattle shipments this summer will amount to 2000 cars, as a number of buyers for the cattle markets are in the interior of Mexico.
